

 Her Return from Toulouse with an I ❤️ You or Two

Hello, My Ever So Special Maxi 😊 It's me, Your Tommy. I think you are so tired from your trip that you won't remember me there. I can feel you, though. My hands are crawling over you. Touching that luscious skin and watching you sleep so soundly.

When I touch your hips, you back into me, spooning our bodies and becoming one under the covers. I want you, as I do every night, but I want you to rest tonight, so you are refreshed tomorrow.

I will just lay here tonight, holding you, staring at how beautiful you are, even when you are fast asleep.

Well, I am human and very turned on by you just wearing panties, so I mean, I may wander a little bit, but my hope is that you do not wake up and just think it is a dream.

Except this time, as I run my hands over your sexy body, I will be whispering into your ears how much I ❤️ you, how much I want you, how much I need you every day and how we will be forever happy. I will be pulling your hair in gentle ways from your face, around your ear and off of your neck.... exposing that sensuous neck flowing with responsive nerves, veins filled with passion and skin that is heightened to my touch and kisses. As I start to whisper that I ❤️ you into your ear, my hand is making its way down your side, just grazing your skin and passing over your hips and down your leg.

As I start kissing your neck, my hand makes its way back to your leg with a little more pressure and rubbing you like a man that misses his woman. As I start to kiss down your back, my hand moves around to your breasts, which are wide awake and looking for attention that they deserve. Your reaction to my touch is always met with excitement. I am moving from one breast to the other, massaging and caressing them, as I continue to move down your back with my kisses...

I am writing on your back with my tongue that I ❤️ you and blowing on my saliva written words, as it sends shivers throughout your body... As my hands move to your waist, I grab your hip bones and I start kissing the small of your back, mumbling how much you mean to me...

My hands start caressing your cheeks, rubbing and squeezing as my tongue falls between them running along the crack...down one side and up the other. As I circle your balloon knot, your hips begin to roll around and I start blowing my cool breath on the trail of my tongue. Your cheeks start flexing and contracting in response.

I forced them open again with my hands and make my way towards your pussy as I suck your perineum, nibbling on your lips and darting my tongue into you...

Can you hear me whispering that I ❤️ you? I am saying it over and over as my tongue slides inside of you, tasting your delicious juice and feeling your groin gyrate into my face, as your hands are now running through my hair... With each nibble, each suction, each slide of my tongue inside and out of you, I am softly letting you know how much I want you, how much I must have you...

I've woken you, when I promised I was going to let you sleep... You are pulling me up towards you... we are kissing, yes, we are kissing. We kiss so perfectly together and get lost in each other's mouths, that we were unaware as my cock slid its way inside of you....

The warmth, the juice, the tightness of the fit, just was meant to be... We both start moving our hips and kissing. You are telling me you ❤️ me, I am telling you that I ❤️ you and we are slowly grinding away, as my cock goes in and out of your pussy and we fall more and more in ❤️ ❤️ ❤️

Can you hear the sounds of the juices as I press deep inside of you? Can you hear me whispering I ❤️ you? Are you saying you ❤️ me right now? I can hear you. I can feel you. I can taste you. I can smell you. I will always want you and need to be with you...

We are still pushing our hips together and in a ❤️ trance as our desires of the heart, our physical needs and our spiritual Connection grows deeper. We continue to kiss and kiss, as our tongues are working out their romance in our mouths....

Tonight, it looks like you will be the one to cum first, as your breathing is becoming heavier, and your face is getting flush. I love when you stare at me, then close your eyes as they roll back in your head... You are getting closer, so I am going deeper and moving around and around to tip you over the edge....

Your legs are spread across the bed and you are holding your ankles...I am moving faster now, going deeper and deeper...

You are getting quiet and starting to hold your breath, you are close.... I am going really fast now just popping the head of my cock inside your lips and driving you crazy...in out, in out, in out, in out, in out... Your legs are now locked around my waist and quivering.... I can feel your pussy pulsating around my cock as the juice is flowing around me...

I am going deep again and again and again... You are staring at me, through me, I know what you are thinking.... I ❤️ you, too!
